

BYLAWS

OF THE GREATER SPOKANE CHAPTER

OF INFORMATION SYSTEMS SECURITY ASSOCIATION, INC.

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Greater Spokane Chapter, hereafter referred to as the “Chapter” of the Information Systems Security Association, Inc., hereafter referred to as the “Association”.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

The primary purpose of the Chapter is to promote the education of its members for the improvement and development of their capabilities relating to the security of the information systems processing.

More specifically, the objectives of the Association are (a) to promote the education of, and help expand the knowledge and skills of its members in the interrelated fields of information systems security, and information or data processing; (b) to encourage a free exchange of information security techniques, approaches, and problem solving by its members; (c) to provide adequate communication to keep members abreast of current events in information processing and security which can be beneficial to them and employers; and (d) to communicate to management, and to systems and information processing professionals the importance of establishing controls necessary to ensure the secure organization and utilization of information processing resources.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Membership in the Chapter is based upon one having primary interest and active involvement in information systems security in the private or public sector. In addition, membership is contingent upon interest in the purposes and objectives of the chapter as stated in Article II, acceptance of the Association Code of Ethics and is subject to provisions of Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and the types of membership established by the Association Board of Directors.

The types of membership may be referenced at the Association's website, www.issa.org.

SECTION 2. Other - The Chapter Officers with the approval of the Association's Vice President of Membership may provide for other types of membership.

SECTION 3. Members in Good Standing - Members who maintain their membership by payment of dues as required under the Article VII of the Bylaws and who otherwise qualify shall be considered in good standing and entitled to full privilege of membership.

SECTION 4. Resignation - any member may resign at any time, but such resignation shall not relieve the resigning individual from payment of dues for the expired portion of the current fiscal year or give any right to rebate of dues or any right to a pro rata or other share of the assets of the Chapter. All resignations shall be made in writing.

SECTION 5. Expulsion - The Officers, at any meeting at which a quorum is present may, by a two-thirds vote of those present terminate the membership of any member who in its judgment has violated the Bylaws, Code of Ethics, or who has been guilty of conduct detrimental to the interests of the Chapter, provided that such person shall have been granted an opportunity for a hearing before the Officers. The Officers shall cause at least thirty days (30) notice of the hearing to be given in writing, delivered by registered mail, to the member against whom charges may be preferred. Such action by the Officers shall be final and shall cancel all rights, interests or privileges of such member in the services or resources of the Chapter. The presiding Officer shall have the authority to appoint a Sergeant At Arms to preserve order and execute commands.

SECTION 6. Termination - Membership may be terminated if payment of the annual Chapter dues has not been received by the Chapter Treasurer as provided for in Article VII.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The officers of the Chapter must be general members in good standing as of the date of their election. The officers shall consist, at minimum, of President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

SECTION 2. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Chapter and shall obey the mandates of the members. The President shall have the power to call special meetings if deemed necessary for the benefit of the Chapter and shall have the deciding vote in case of tied decisions.

SECTION 3. The Vice President shall attend to the duties of the President in his/her absence or in case the President's office may become vacant for any cause whatever, and shall attend to any other duties as the President may require. Additionally, the Vice President shall review all membership applications for eligibility.

SECTION 4. The Secretary shall record and keep minutes of all meetings. The Secretary shall perform a bank reconciliation monthly. The Secretary shall maintain sufficient membership address lists as to ensure that all members in good standing are notified of meetings, and that the members receive all other correspondence necessary to the conduct of the Chapter. At the direction of the President, the Secretary shall also transmit and respond to all correspondence of the Chapter.

SECTION 5. The Treasurer shall collect all membership dues and other monies or articles of value belonging to the Chapter, and shall keep an accurate account of all treasury receipts, expenditures, and deposits.

SECTION 6. All past Presidents retaining active membership shall be privileged to attend such meetings held by the Officers, to act only in an advisory capacity and without power of vote.

SECTION 7. The business of the Chapter shall be managed by the Officers. A quorum for business shall consist of three officers present. An officer quorum may, from time to time, establish special committees for various purposes as required.

SECTION 8. In case of an officer vacancy other than the Office of President, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the President, upon the advice of the remaining officers, and subject to the consent of a majority of the membership attending the next general meeting.

SECTION 9. On a motion and second from the membership at a general meeting, an officer shall be held before the Chapter for malfeasance of duty. A two-thirds majority of all Chapter members shall be required for removal from office.
